and his Valour have reflected upon his Country.

RESOLVED,

II. THAT one of the Inscriptions to be placed upon the Pedestal of the Statue shall be quoted from the Words of the Duke de Richlieu, in the 2d. Article of the Capitulation of St. Philip's Fort: That Posterity may know, what Opinion his very Enemies had conceived of this uncorrupted, gallant Commander.

The Words intended are as follow :

“ The noble and vigorous Defence which
 “ the English have made, having deserved all
 “ the Marks of Esteem and Veneration, that “ every Military Person ought to shew to such “ Actions; and Marshal Richlieu being de- “ sirous, also, to shew General Blakeney the “ Regard due to the brave Defence he has “ made, grants to the Garrison all the Honours
 “ of War that they can enjoy, under the Cir- “ cumstances of their going out for an Em- “ barkation: to wit, Firelocks on their Shoul- “ ders, Drums beating, Colours flying, twenty “ Cartouches

“ Cartouches each Man, and also lighted Match,
“ &c.” Capit. St. Philip’s Fort. Art. 2d.

RESOLVED,

III. THAT a Committee be appointed to devise, conduct and manage all Matters necessary to the carrying of this Design into Execution, in the most speedy and elegant Manner.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly.

RESOLVED,

IV. THAT the Committee do immediately apply to Mr. Van Nost, the Statuary, to lay before them one or more Designs or Models for this Work, and to receive his Proposals for executing the same.

RESOLVED,

V. THAT this Committee shall consist of 160, and as many other Members of the Order, as shall please to attend ; and that they shall adjourn from Time to Time, and Place to Place, as they shall think proper, and Report

Report their Opinions to the GENERAL GRAND KNOT, for their Approbation.

RESOLVED,

VI. THAT Ten of the Committee, and no less may fit to do Business.

RESOLVED,

Expedition being of so great Consequence, as we are ambitious of being the First, as well to execute, as to propose this Public-Spirited Design ; it is hoped our Brethren in the Country will excuse us for not sending them Copies of these Resolutions ; as we could not, without great Delay, learn how to direct to them all. But you are requested to inform inform every Subscriber, that he may have a Printed Copy of these Resolutions, by sending to our Friendly Brother, SAMUEL PRICE, Bookseller in Dame-street, Dublin.
